religion. - There are a few poor people who believed - there is all general opposition to the foreign trade as much to his religion. - I, we should only sit at home. not go to teach into houses, & if our religion was good they would learn by example. (answer: They came not to us as we to you, what could you see of us? In addition we are commanded by God to go to all nations & teach them.) all things went on more quiet this meeting took a strong hour. - Had an unwilling hearing of a man this day. They heard the whole gospel, though amid occasional excuses. Altho I prevailed, the hearing & reading went on again.
Had an excellent hearing Sunday of a father & his 3 boys. & concluded with prayer. - In the evening - we had gone home through rain & mud - when it became somewhat clear, Mr.
Morton told me he had been out for about an hour with his book, & found business in five houses. This is cheering news indeed.

May 1st. Took eye-water & blistering ointment to a youth whom we met yesterday with a bad inflammation, ^{in the eyes} of a year's standing.

When returned home Schisawichi came. He manifestly wanted some information as to the Russians, their strength, the possibility of their aiding Japan against the Americans, on all which I said what I thought proper. I also requested him to try to get us some Chinese todgies, if not for book reading - at any rate for keeping up exercise in speaking. He promised to try.
He also gave me ~~some information~~ repeatedly to understand that Dr. Williams, the Commodore's interpreter, often say about, with his poor Chinese talk, to get them to say something against us. But they never did, except their repeated assurances, as expressed often in Japanese, that they did not want here any foreign religion, & that during eight years we could do here nothing. I thought it now the best opportunity to ask, whether they had had Dr. W. or any of the Americans or Russians, or our Committee made any further in land

I have had my mind very much occupied with the remembrance of your kind letter of the 17th inst.
and in answer to it I have written you a few lines in which I have endeavored to express to you the feelings which I have experienced in reading your letter. I have been much pleased to hear of your success in your studies, and I trust that you will continue to improve in every respect. I have also been much interested in the progress of the cause of the missionary in your country, and I trust that you will continue to be a faithful and active member of the church.

Mr. [Name] has been very kind to write me and to inform me of the progress of the cause in your country. I have been much interested in the progress of the cause, and I trust that you will continue to be a faithful and active member of the church. I have also been much interested in the progress of the cause in your country, and I trust that you will continue to be a faithful and active member of the church.

speaking as man never yet spoke. his apostles preached with holyunction, we preach with deep concern & pure affection for souls, but, alas! how few are they who repent & how many they who go on in their hardness of heart & rebellion to God. Unto such I would say, hear the words of your Saviour: the men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation & condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here." I concluded the service with the Hymn: "When through the storm and the wild tempest is streaming." I am thankful to God for his service.
It has greatly refreshed my poor tempest tossed, frail heart.

Mr. [Name] told me of a meeting taking place yesterday between Mr. [Name] accompanied by one of his men, & twenty natives who drew by stones at them, & gave me a letter of his to be [Name] with the request to translate it to - my, which I have missed. - Mrs. [Name] having remained at home, ^{having} the sun might injure her, we made our home way very rapidly, & went out again on our missionary round. I had a pretty good talk with two youths in a very poor house, talking them of God, the Saviour & the Holy Spirit, endeavoring by the history of the fall to explain to them their own hearts, & from the history of the gospel to show them its remedy. - Had an excellent hearing & reading first of a whole crowd in a hut erected for the workmen near a grove just in process of building. Four heavens remained & constituted one of the best audiences I ever had in [Name].
I gave them a full hour, & am sure they were as happy as I was. Their faces beamed. One among them, I hope to God, has taken in the gospel for life & eternity. Mr. [Name] edified me greatly by his feeling "Amen" on the concluding prayer, which I opened up with strong crying & tears unto him who is able to seal his truth on souls whom he so graciously promises disciple to hear the gospel of his Son. The men themselves also said
"Amen", with which our God himself says "Amen" to his own glory & the redemption of at least that one [Name] whose face beamed with gospel emotions?

...the most excellent hearing of a respectable man...
...down then joining us. He appeared to be a good natured & followed me on the page. This interesting meeting also took us nearly an hour & was worth it. attention & days concern now flagged, the concluding prayer was hearty with an emotion of tears. - went them into a slumber, then we found the grand asleep.

Here follows Mr. Randalls' letter (which I translated to the evening when Mr. Dickson, as expected, came & fetched it) Tonai May 7th 1854.

...last evening while Mr. Beebe & one man were returning home, just as they were beginning to cross the flats, they had a shower of stones thrown at them by about twenty men & boys. He continued to stone them until they had got across the flats. Fortunately neither of them was hit, for if they had been, they would have been killed, for the stones were large & thrown with much force. This is not the first time Mr. Beebe had stones thrown at him. I shall report this case to the Commodore Perry upon his arrival here, together with your answer & have no doubt he will consider it a violation of faith, as Mr. Beebe had not intended any one in his work. And in future I shall let the men take arms with them to defend themselves with if they are treated so again. I will write for your reply.
