Dear General Hayes,

Thank you very much for the considerate arrangements you made for me during my short stay in Okinawa. I am especially grateful for the helicopter you provided for me, without which I could not have seen so much in the little time available. I appreciate the trouble your staff took in guiding me around the repair and maintenance facilities in your base.

I hope that the information and knowledge I gained during my trip will be a good foundation for my work here in Tokyo.

Yours sincerely,

Bunroku Yoshino

Dear General Johnson,

I deeply appreciate your kind hospitality during my recent visit to Okinawa. It was indeed good of you to take time out to personally guide me around Kadena Air Base and to show me the C5 transport plane. It was most impressive and reassuring to see the facilities of the Base. I hope we shall be able to continue our cooperation during this critical stage in the history of Okinawa.

Yours sincerely,

Bunroku Yoshino
Director-General of the

Dear General Barrow,

Thank you very much for the kind arrangements you made for me during my short visit to your camps. I was especially impressed by the spirit of the troops under your command.

The briefings I received from you and from General Wilson were most helpful and informative. Please convey my deep thanks to General Wilson.

Yours sincerely,

Bunroku Yoshino
Director-General of the American Affairs Bureau,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Commanding General,
