SNEIDER-YOSHINO ARRANGEMENT REGARDING NAHA AIRPORT

I. SNEIDER LETTER

Dear Mr. Yoshino:

With reference to the agreement of the United States to remove the remaining military aircraft from Naha Air Base by the date of reversion of Okinawa to Japan and the consequent listing of Naha Air Base on "List C" containing the installations and sites which the Government of the United States intends to release upon or before reversion, the understanding of the Government of the United States is as follows:

The U.S. requires time to permit completion of arrangements so that the military aircraft now at Naha Air Base can be transferred elsewhere. Despite the fact that both Governments will make the utmost efforts to complete such arrangements before Reversion date, there is a possibility that arrangements cannot be completed by then. If said arrangements in fact are not complete by Reversion date, it may be necessary for military aircraft now using Naha Air Base to continue using that installation; and, if necessary, the two Governments will take action pursuant to the SOFA to allow such continued use.

I would appreciate your letter in reply confirming that these understandings are also the understandings of the Government of Japan.

Yours truly,
