Memorandum concerning Sale of Rice by the Government of Japan to the Government of the Ryukyu Islands for Calendar Year 1972

1. (Purpose)

The purpose of this Memorandum is to provide for the arrangements necessary for the sale of rice by the Government of Japan to the Government of the Ryukyu Islands in 1972. The sale of rice, to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Law concerning Special Measures for Sale of Rice by the Government of Japan to the Government of the Ryukyu Islands for Promotion and Development of Industries in Okinawa, is intended to secure financial resources for the funds needed to expedite industrial development in Okinawa.

2. (Conditions of Sale)

The conditions of sale shall be as follows:

A. Selling price shall be determined by the Government of Japan, taking into consideration the consumer price of rice in Okinawa.

B. Payment shall be made in equal annual installments without collateral and free of interest within the period of twenty years including a grace period of up to three years as specified in each sales contract.

3. (Purpose of Fund)

The Government of the Ryukyu Islands shall reserve the money to be obtained through the sale of rice purchased from the Government of Japan

Japan so as to use it for such purposes as the improvement and development of agricultural infrastructure, the betterment in industrial structure of agricultural product processing industries including the sugar refining industry, the development and rational use of water resources, and other industrial development purposes to be decided by the Government of Japan.

4. (Purchase, Selection of Projects and Funding)

In order to purchase rice in accordance with this Memorandum, the Government of the Ryukyu Islands, pursuant to approval of the United States Civil Administration of the Ryukyu Islands, shall obtain the prior concurrence of the Government of Japan in (1) a purchase schedule, and (2) proposed projects and terms of financing from, and repayment to, the reserve fund created by the program. Similar concurrence shall be obtained in order to change the above arrangements. However, no prior concurrence shall be required in case a proposed change is of a minor nature.

5. (Measures to Be Taken in Case of Misuse)

In case the Government of the Ryukyu Islands uses the reserve fund for purposes other than those concurred in by the Government of Japan, the Government of Japan shall demand an immediate repayment by the Government of the Ryukyu Islands of the fund in the amount used for such unapproved purposes.

6. (Survey and Report)

The Government of Japan may request at any time the Government of the Ryukyu Islands to submit a report on the use of the reserve fund;
and

and the Government of Japan may also conduct, as necessary, a survey on the use of the fund in cooperation with the United States Civil Administration of the Ryukyu Islands and with the assistance of the Government of the Ryukyu Islands.

7. (Report on Use of the Reserve Fund)

The Government of the Ryukyu Islands shall submit to the Government of Japan a report on the use of the reserve fund within six months after the end of each fiscal year.

8. (Sale of Rice between the GOJ and the GRI)

Sale of rice by the Government of Japan to the Government of the Ryukyu Islands shall be made in accordance with a sales contract conforming to the purchase schedule as provided for in the paragraph 4 above between an official in charge of contracts of the Food Agency of the Government of Japan and the Head of the Tokyo Liaison Office of the Government of the Ryukyu Islands acting as the agent of the Chief Executive of the Government of the Ryukyu Islands.

9. (Amendment of Memorandum)

The provisions of this Memorandum may be amended by agreement of the Government of Japan, the United States Civil Administration of the Ryukyu Islands and the Government of the Ryukyu Islands.

10. (Validity of Memorandum)

This Memorandum shall come into force on the date when all of the following three parties have signed and the signature on the part of the
