REPORT TO THE PREPARATORY COMMISSION FROM THE ALTERNATES

- 1. Since the last Principals' meeting on 27 January 1971, the Alternates have met formally on 52 occasions to continue coordination of local preparations to assure a smooth reversion of Okinawa to Japan. Additionally, informal discussions have been held as circumstances indicated. The four standing PrepCom Subcommittees (Industrial and Economic Affairs, Local Preparations for Transfer of Administrative Rights, Local Preparations to Facilitate Application of SOFA to Okinawa, and General Affairs), as well as ad hoc subcommittees, have also met frequently.
- 2. Key topics to which the Alternates and the Subcommittees addressed themselves are indicated by the suggested lists of topics for PrepCom discussion tabled by the U. S. Alternate on 23 July 1971 and 23 December 1971 (TABs A and B). The Alternates and Subcommittees did not limit themselves to these matters, however, and a number of other subjects were taken up at the suggestion of one or another of the participating Governments.

- 3. Significant PrepCom agreements reached during the period under consideration included the following. The listed agreements are representative of the broad range of matters taken up in the PrepCom forum but do not constitute a complete catalogue of items treated.
- a. Agreement on procedures for the Japanese Government and Okinawa Prefectural Government to take over the collection of rentals and to accept custody of related documents in connection with the relinquishment by the U. S. Government of its Ryukyu Property Custodian functions concerning the administration of former Japanese State and Prefectural lands.
 - b. Agreement to facilitate the GRI Immigration Agency's transition to the GOJ Immigration Service, through training of local personnel by GOJ experts on such matters as entry controls and alien registration.

- c. Agreement on the local level, to be finalized in Tokyo, on the postreversion application in Okinawa of Japanese laws on registration, inspection, and compulsory insurance for privately-owned vehicles of members of the U. S. Armed Forces, the civilian component, and dependents.
 - d. Agreement on preparations for GOJ assumption of responsibility for postal functions, including notification to international postal authorities and arrangements for the post-reversion exchange of mail between the U. S. Forces and the local postal administration.
 - e. Agreement concerning the method for registering Ryukyuan vessels under Japanese law and the assignment of signal letters to such vessels.
 - f. Agreement on measures for the transition from Ryukyuan to Japanese radio stations in Okinawa, including the assignment of new call signs.
 - g. Agreement on guidelines under which the GOJ could more effectively supervise its aid program to the Ryukyus.
 - h. Agreement on procedures for revising the USG-GOJ "Memorandum Concerning Loans of the Government of Japan to the Government of the Ryukyu Islands for Japanese Fiscal Year 1970." The revision enabled the GOJ to make loans to the GRI for the promotion of tourism in Okinawa.
 - i. Agreement on the training of RDWC and REPC personnel in developing real property records conforming to GOJ requirements.
 - 4. Useful discussions which clarified procedural matters and served as a medium for the exchange of information in a number of other areas were also held. Following are examples of such discussions.

- a. Discussions by the Subcommittee for Industrial and Economic Affairs of matters relating to the REPC, including union demands, real estate, power rates, accumulated annual leave, construction of the Ishikawa Power Plant, labor negotiations, introduction of a new wage system, and guidance concerning implementation of GOJ laws and ordinances.

 - b. Discussions by the Subcommittee for Industrial and Economic Affairs of subjects relating to the RDWC, including water facilities to be transferred, acquisition of land, water rates, wage conversion, accumulated annual leave, and labor negotiations.
- c. Discussions by the Subcommittee for Industrial and Economic Affairs concerning the GOJ's assumption of responsibility for RDLC operations, the settlement of RDLC accounts at reversion, and the administration and repayment of loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation.
- d. Discussions by the Subcommittee on Local Preparations for Transfer of Administrative Rights of procedures for aliens to obtain immigration status and to register as aliens following reversion. The Subcommittee aided the GOJ in drafting an English language "Notice to Alien Residents in Okinawa" explaining these procedures.
- e.. Discussions by the Alternates of the future status of the English Language Center and of the U. S. Cultural Centers and of the disposition of U. S.-owned equipment in the centers.

- f. Discussions by the Subcommittee on Local Preparations to Facilitate Application of SOFA to Okinawa concerning post-reversion port operations, including services of pilots and tugboats.
- 5. PrepCom utilized briefings of concerned individuals and groups as another device in preparing the way for a smooth reversion. The following are representative of such briefings:

- a. Briefing by the USG of the Alternates and their staffs on U. S. medical $_{\rm f}$ evacuation procedures in Okinawa.
 - b. Briefing by the GRI of the Alternates and their staffs on Okinawan post-reversion fishing arrangements.
 - c. Briefings by the GOJ for the foreign business community on immigration matters and on procedures to be followed under GOJ laws and regulations concerning foreign investment, foreign exchange, foreign trade, etc.
 - d. Briefing by OBONTA for the Alternates and their staffs on the GOJ Okinawa Reversion Measures Outline.
 - 6. PrepCom also continued to serve as a channel for the almost daily exchange of information, data, documents, and maps required by the participating Governments in connection with their reversion preparations. It served as a clearing house for arrangements for calls on U. S. officials and tours of U. S. installations by visiting GOU officials.
 - 7. In preparation for the liquidation of the Joint Secretariat, agreement has been reached on (a) disposition of the small sum of unexpended joint funds which will remain on Reversion Day, (b) distribution of PrepCom furniture, fixtures, and other equipment, and (c) final custody of original PrepCom documents.
 - 8. The Alternates invite the attention of the Principals to the statements of PrepCom accounts for the fiscal years ending 31 March 1971 and 31 March 1972 (TABs C and D).
 - 9. The Alternates wish to call attention to and express their appreciation for the fine work done by the Joint Secretariat.

10. In response to the Consultative Committee request to be kept informed of PrepCom progress, the Alternates recommend that a copy of this report be forwarded through proper channels to the ConCom members together with an indication of action taken on the report by the Principals at their 4 May meeting.

LAMPERT: Mr. Ambassador and Mr. Chief Executive, ladies and gentlemen, it is a very distinct honor for me to be invited to serve as chairman at the last meeting of the Preparatory Commission, on the eve of the historical day of May 15 when reversion will take place. I should like to express my apologies for having caused the meeting to begin behind time. The combination of rain and heavy traffic congestion was the reason for it, but it still caused inconvenience for you. With permission of my colleagues I would like to suggest that we proceed to consider the report submitted to us from the Alternates.

TAKASE & YARA: Yes.

the comments of the High Commissioner.

LAMPERT: The report begins, I believe, with two introductory paragraphs so that the substantive paragraphs include paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7, which summarize the major accomplishments of the Preparatory Commission since the last Principals' meeting on 27 January 1971. Although we have not met for more than one year we are all aware that our Alternates and various subcommittees were extremely busy and sometimes met on an almost daily basis. These paragraphs do constitute an extremely important and noteworthy summary of the work which has been accomplished in the past fifteen or sixteen months. I would like to ask my colleagues whether they have any comments or matters to be discussed with respect to these paragraphs. Mr. Ambassador?

TAKASE: Mr. Chairman. I think I have no new comments. I agree with YARA: I feel that the contents of the report indicate sufficient study has been made. Therefore, I do not have any comments.

LAMPERT: I agree. I would like then to invite the attention of my colleagues to paragraph 8 and in turn to the related TABs C and D which include financial statements of the accounts, of the Preparatory Commission for the two fiscal years ending 31 March 1971 and 31 March 1972. It appears to me that these statements are complete and reflect good management on the part of the staffs and the Joint Secretariat as shown in the carry-over account attached to the back of the report for the second fiscal year. I would like to ask whether you have any comments, my colleagues. Yes. Mr. Chairman. I have also paid attention to the accompanying documents and have no comments. I do appreciate very much the work on the two reports done by the Joint Secretariat. () YARA: I concur. LAMPERT: With the agreement of my colleagues I would like to propose we approve the two financial statements shown at TABs C and D. TAKASE: I concur. YARA: I concur also. Paragraph 9 of the report notes the Alternates wish to LAMPERT: express appreciation for the fine work done by the Joint Secretariat. I would like to personally subscribe to this statement. I am aware from reports made to me of the extreme diligence, very cooperative attitude, and great devotion

TAKASE: Mr. Chairman, I would like to join with an expression on behalf of the GOJ of deep appreciation for the fine work done by the Joint Secretariat.

YARA: The reversion of Okinawa has been very complicated, and we were concerned with how the great task would be carried out. The members of the Joint Secretariat have carried out their work in excellent manner. I am pleased to say this and offer my thanks.

LAMPERT: Thanks to my colleagues. I fully subscribe to what they have said. The final paragraph recommends that a copy of this report should be forwarded by the Preparatory Commission to the ConCom members in Tokyo. I would like to suggest that we agree to forward a copy of this report through proper channels to the ConCom with a statement that the Preparatory Commission has agreed on this report at the meeting today.

TAKASE:

Mr. Chairma, I agree also.

YARA:

No objection.

LAMPERT:

I would like to suggest, gentlemen, that we move to consider the press statement which is included at the back of the folder. I recommend we approve this statement for release to the press.

TAKASE:

Mr. Chairman, I do approve.

YARA:

I, too, approve.

LAMPERT:

Thank you very much. I would like now to ask if anything in today's meeting should not be discussed with the press. In my judgment there is not anything which cannot be discussed. In other words, everything we covered in this meeting should be available for discussion with the press.

TAKASE:

 $\mbox{Mr.}$ Chairman, I also concur with you and have no comment.

YARA:

I do too.

C LAMPERT: Thank you very much. I would like now to ask my colleagues if there are other substnative matters we should discuss before terminating

~, the meeting. I have nothing.

TAKASE:

I have nothing.

YARA:

Me.either.

LAMPERT: Before closing this meeting I would like to take this opportunity to make a personal expression. I will have other opportunities later before my departure from Okinawa next week. But at this particular meeting I would like to express deep appreciation of the understanding and constant cooperation shown by my colleagues and the equally hard and devoted work performed by all those associated with the Preparatory Commission who have worked both full time and part time through subcommittees and working groups. It has been very impressive for me to see this example of true international cooperation among all of the people concerned. I certainly have profited from it and am grateful to my colleagues and to the others I just () mentioned.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to join you in expressing a few words of thanks on this august occation of the final Preparatory Commission meeting. I would like also to join you in expressing my personal deep appreciation for the hard work done by the Alternates, subcommittee members, the Joint Secretariat, and all of the persons who have been and are attached to this international organization. As an individual I will cherish forever memories of the Advisory Committee and the PrepCom, which I had the honor to serve fm m beginning to end. In my personal history I know that some day I will look back on this experience as one of the happiest and finest memories of my career.

Last but not least I should like to add a greeting sent by Foreign Minister Fukuda. He wanted me to convey to my colleagues and the staffs of the PrepCom his appreciation of the work done in the name of this Commission and his conthe gratulations for the successful finish of/PrepCom work as well as his best wishes to all of you.

YARA: The matter of reversion has been discussed at this Commission. The Okinawa Prefectural people have demonstrated deep consideration of the matters taken up by the Preparatory Commission. The Adviser has taken his place as a representative on an equal basis. We joined gratefully and with deep interest. I feel deep emotion because I was asked to join the Commission as an Adviser but actually, based on the representatives' agreement, I was able to sit on an equal basis. I am glad about the military matters which the Commission could not take up. General Lampert and Ambassador Takase discussed this matter with me and they forwarded my requests to their respective governments. I appreciate this. I would like to extend deep appreciation to the staffs. Finally I would like to say that my Alternate Adviser, Mr. Senaga, before he could see the final stage of the Preparatory Commission, had to leave for his personal reasons. I really miss him today, not seeing him here. He has assisted me with this organization. I would like to express my appreciation to him for the assistance he has given to me.

LAMPERT: Gentlemen, I would like, at this point and with your concurrence, and a feeling of satisfaction, deep nostaliga, and regret, to say the meeting will be adjourned.

The meeting was adjourned at 1440 hours.

THE PREPARATORY COMMISSION

26-5 Higashi Machi

Naha, Okinawa

Tel: (68) 6505 (9) 79185

4 May 1972

PRESS STATEMENT

The Preparatory Commission held its final meeting at 1400 on 4 May.

In attendance at the Commission's offices in Naha were the United States Representative, High Commissioner James B. Lampert; the Representative of the Government of Japan, Ambassador Jiro Takase; and the Adviser to the Commission, Mr. Chobyo Yara, Chief Executive of the Government of the Ryukyu Islands.

The Alternates reported to the Representatives and Adviser that, since the last Principals' meeting on 27 January 1971, the Alternates had met formally on 52 occasions to continue coordination of local preparations to assure a smooth reversion of Okinawa to Japan. Additionally, informal discussions have been held as circumstances indicated. The four standing Preparatory Commission Subcommittees (Industrial and Economic Affairs, Local Preparations for Transfer of Administrative Rights, Local Reparations to Facilitate Application of SOFA to Okinawa, and General Affairs), as well as ad hoc subcommittees, have also met frequently.

The Alternates reported the following significant Commission agreements had been reached. These agreements are representative of the broad range of matters taken up in the Commission forum, although they do not constitute a complete catalogue of subjects treated.

- a. Agreement on procedures for the Japanese Government and Okinawa

 Prefectural Gove ament to take over the collection of rentals and to accept custody of related documents in connection with the relinquishment by the

 U.S. Government of its Ryukyu Property Custodian functions concerning the administration of former Japanese State and Prefectural lands.

 - b. Agreement to facilitate the GRI Immigration Agency's transition to the GOJ Immigration Service, through training of local personnel by GOJ experts on such matters as entry controls and alien registration.
- c. Agreement on the local level, to be finalized in Tokyo, on the post-reversion application of Japanese laws on registration, inspection, and compulsory insurance for privately-owned vehicles of members of the U.S. Armed Forces, the civilian component, and dependents.
 - d. Agreement on preparations for GOJ assumption of responsibility for postal functions, including notification to international postal authorities and arrangements for the post-reversion exchange of mail between the U.S. Forces and the local postal administration.
 - e. Agreement concerning the method for registering Ryukyuan vessels under Japanese law and the assignment of signal letters to such vessels.
 - f. Agreement on measures for the transition from Ryukyuan to Japanese radio stations in Okinawa, including the assignment of new call signs.
 - g. Agreement on guidelines under which the GOJ could more effectively supervise its aid program to the Ryukyus.
 - h. Agreement on procedures for revising the USG-GOJ "Memorandum Concerning Loans of the Government of Japan to the Government of the Ryukyu Islands for Japanese Fiscal Year 1970." The revision enabled the GOJ to make loans to the GRI for the promotion of tourism in Okinawa.

i. Agreement on the training of RDWC and REPC personnel in developing real property records which conform to GOJ requirements.

Useful discussions which clarified procedural matters and served as a medium for the exchange of information in a number of other areas were also held. The following are examples of such discussions:

- a. Discussions of matters relating to the REPC, including union demands, real estate, power rates, accumulated annual leave, construction of the Ishikawa Power Plant, labor negotiations, introduction of a new wage system, and guidance concerning implementation of GOJ laws and ordinances.
- b. Discussions of subjects related to the RDWC, including water facilities to be transferred, acquisition of land, water rates, wage conversion, accumulated annual leave, and labor negotiations.
 - c. Discussions concerning the GOJ's assumption of responsibility for RDLC operations, the settlement of RDLC accounts at reversion, and the administration and repayment of loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation.
 - d. Discussions of procedures for aliens to obtain immigration status and to register as aliens following reversion.
 - e. Discussions of the future status of the English Language Center and of the U.S. Cultural Centers and of the disposition of the U.S.-owned equipment contained in those centers.
- f. Discussions concerning post-reversion port operations, including services of pilots and tugboats.

The Commission also utilized formal briefings of concerned individuals and groups as another device in preparing the way for smooth reversion. The following are representative of such briefings:

- a. Briefing by the USG of the Alternates and their staffs on medical evacuation procedures in Okinawa.
- b. Briefing by the GRI of the Alternates and their staffs on Okinawan post-reversion fishing arrangements.
- c. Briefings by the GOJ for the foreign business community on immigration matters and on procedures to be followed under GOJ laws and regulations concerning foreign investment, foreign exchange, foreign trade, etc.
- d. Briefing by OBONTA for the Alternates and their staffs on the GOJ Okinawa Reversion Measures Outline.
- The Commission also continued to serve as a channel for the almost daily exchange of information, data, documents, and maps required by the participating Governments in connection with their reversion preparations. Additionally it served as a clearing house where arrangements were made for calls on U.S. officials and tours of U.S. installations by visiting GOJ officials.

The Commission will continue to perform its assigned functions through 14 May 1972.
