Suggested Changes in Communiqué

A. Last sentence of para 2 should be amended to read:

"The President, while emphasizing that the countries in the area were expected to make their own efforts for the stability of Asia, gave assurance that the United States would continue to contribute to the maintenance of international peace and security in the Far East by honoring its treaty obligations for defense of countries in the area."

B. The first sentence of para 3 should contain one additional word and should read: "The Prime Minister and the President specifically noted the continuing tension over the Korean Peninsula."

C. Para 3 should be revised to read as follows beginning with fourth sentence: "The President referred to the treaty obligations of his country to the Republic of China, which the U. S. will uphold. The Prime Minister expressed his understanding of the position of the U. S. and agreed that an armed attack against Taiwan or the Pescadores would be dangerous to the peace of the Far East, including Japan. The Prime Minister and the President shared the hope that Communist China would eventually assume a more cooperative external posture. The President described the sincere efforts made by the United States for a peaceful and just settlement of the Vietnam problem. The Prime Minister expressed understanding for U. S. efforts to restore peace in Vietnam and stated that if hostilities have not concluded there by the time reversion is scheduled to take place, the Japanese Government would assure that the military effort in Vietnam would not be impeded because of reversion. The Prime Minister stated that Japan was exploring what role she could play in bringing about stability and reconstruction in the Indo-China area."

D. The sixth sentence in para 5 should be amended to read: "They further agreed to expedite the consultations and to seek the necessary legislative support with a view to accomplishing the reversion during the year 1972 if detailed negotiations and implementing arrangements for reversion are completed by that time." ~~_____~~

E. In penultimate sentence para 5, "Following reversion" should be reinserted after words "His Government." ok

F. At the end of the first sentence of para 6 delete the restrictive clause "without any additional arrangement."
(We thinking of additional arrangements such as new interpretive minutes or supplemental decisions of Joint Committee on SOFA problems.)

Para 3.

"The President and the Prime Minister agreed an armed attack against countries of the Far East, particularly the areas adjacent to Japan, would be dangerous to the peace and security of Japan. They specifically noted the continuing tension over the Korean peninsula. The Prime Minister highly appreciated the peace-keeping efforts of the United Nations in the area and stated that the security of the Republic of Korea was essential to Japan's own security. Referring to the accelerated development of nuclear arsenal by Communist China, the President expressed his concern over the future trends of its foreign policy. The President also recalling that Communist China had so far refused to join with the United States in a mutual renunciation of the threat or use of force in the Taiwan area, referred to the treaty obligations of his country to the Republic of China. The Prime Minister expressed his full understanding of the position of the United States and stated that the Japanese Government also continued to view the situation in the Taiwan area with close attention and concern. The Prime Minister and the President shared the hope that Communist China would eventually assume a more cooperative external posture. The President described the sincere efforts made by the United States for a peaceful and just settlement of the Vietnam problem. The Prime Minister expressed understanding for U. S. efforts to restore peace in Vietnam and stated that if hostilities have not concluded there by the time reversion is scheduled to take place, the Japanese Government would assure that the military effort in Vietnam would not be impeded because of reversion. The Prime Minister stated that Japan was exploring what role she could play in bringing about stability and reconstruction in the Indo-China area."
