

Okinawan Journal of Island Studies

Edited by Ayano Ginoza, Editor for the Okinawan Journal of Island Studies,
 Evangelia Papoutsaki and Meng Qu, Guest Editors & Co-convenors of the *Small Island
 Cultures Research Initiative*

Editors' Note

Island Cultures and Heritage: Open and Continuous Reflections
 Ayano Ginoza, Meng Qu, Evangelia Papoutsaki i

Papers

Enoshima: Signifying Island Heritage Across Space and Place	Henry Johnson	3
Island Revitalization and the Setouchi Triennale: Ethnographic Reflection on Three Local Events	Shiu Hong Simon Tu	21
Augmenting Small-Island Heritage through Site-Specific Art: A View from Naoshima	A. D. McCormick	41
Contemporary Island Historiography and Environmental Codifications of Architecture: The Art Museum on Naoshima	Alia Hamadeh	61
Marine Cultural Heritage in Lý Sơn Island, Vietnam: Current Situation and Future Challenges	Hoang Van Nguyen, Thanh Van Vo, Tuyen Dai Quang	77
Defining "Tao-Style" Equality of Fishing Allocations as the Small-Scale Fishing Cultural Heritage in Lanyu, Taiwan	Shenglin Elijah Chang and You-Ren Chung	97
Sacred World Heritage Sites and Their Representations within Travel Information Sources Aiming at International Tourists	Pascal von Beuningen	115
"Text Messages from the Grave": Connecting the Mobile Phone with the Samoan Concept of Va Tapuia	Marion Muliaumaseali'i	143
Beyond Words to Find Words: Creative Hermeneutical Dialogue During COVID-19	Joshua Nash, Fiona Sprott, Jason Sweeney	159

Book Reviews

Pacific: An Ocean of Wonders	Evangelia Papoutsaki	175
The Challenges of Island Studies	Meng Qu	179
Scotland and Islandness: Explorations in Community, Economy and Culture	Sarah R. MacKinnon	183
Nenes' Koza Dabasa: Okinawa in the World Music Market	Junko Konishi	187
Identity, Language and Belonging on Jersey: Migration and the Channel Islands	Henry Johnson	191

Forum: Miduri

Gender, Migration, and Post-Disaster Communities: Call for Intersections and Dynamics of Local and Global Connections in Asia-Pacific Island Countries	Glenda Tibe Bonifacio	197
Windrows : Entangled Negotiations with Fish, Wind, and Time in Coastal Newfoundland/Ktaqmukuk	Maggie J. Whitten Henry	203
Taking the Trouble	Philip Hayward	213

Contributors	223
Submission Guidelines	229

OKINAWAN JOURNAL OF ISLAND STUDIES

Volume 3 Number 1, March 2022

OKINAWAN JOURNAL OF ISLAND STUDIES

Volume 3 Number 1, March 2022

In Collaboration with Small Island Cultures Research Initiative
Interdisciplinary Approaches to Small Island Cultures and Heritage